Check-In

(10 mins.)

Tossing an imaginary ball, in alphabetical order from A-Z, give me one word to describe how you are arriving today.

Toss the ball to anyone who hasn't gone.

(5 mins.)

What is a Caring Conversation?

An open and honest group dialogue where we can better understand each other and the challenges we all face in an increasingly complex world.

Why Have Caring Conversations?

- There is strength in having a healthy dialogue. Having conflicting ideas, opinions, and emotions is what makes us individuals and unique.
- Creating opportunities to reflect, understand our feelings, and hear the perspectives of others in a safe environment.
- Connections that lead to team cohesion, innovative thought, and an integrated experience.

Caring Conversations Guidelines

1. Everyone will be given the opportunity to speak
2. Everyone will speak in council format and will not interrupt when another person is speaking.
3. What is shared in the conversation is confidential, honored, and respected.
4. Everyone will own their thoughts and beliefs by using “I” statements.
5. Be vulnerable to sharing your thoughts and acknowledge you may feel uncomfortable.
6. Listen with openness and curiosity to understand each person’s perspective

Discussion

(20 mins.)

1. Many sessions touched on building equity into the RCE work. Why is this an important part of the work and how can we continue to support this?
2. How can you incorporate the lessons learned in these sessions into your work?
  - a) Student engagement
  - b) Improving food systems
  - c) Sustainable consumption and production
  - d) Community engagement and environmental justice
3. In groups, discuss additional ways you can utilize RCE as a model of education for sustainable development.
4. How can you get others engaged in this important work?
